Learn, Advocate and Vote

Protect the Rights of Those With Disabilities

Date: Friday, September 25, 2020
Time: 12–1 p.m.
Where: Register at EventsCalendar.KennedyKrieger.org/Event/VotingSeminar

Presenter information:

Ben Jackson is a staff attorney at Disability Rights Maryland, the state's designated Protection & Advocacy agency.

Emily Arneson is director of government relations at Kennedy Krieger Institute.

Mat Rice is the public policy specialist at People On the Go Maryland, a statewide self-advocacy group for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Rylin Rodgers is director of public policy at the Association of University Centers on Disabilities.

The Maryland Center for Developmental Disabilities and People On the Go Maryland invite you to a special lecture on the importance of your vote this November. Panelists will share information on voting at the state and federal levels, and will discuss issues affecting those with intellectual and developmental disabilities, as well as the Institute's perspective on relevant topics.
