MCF Celebrates National Recovery Month

JOIN OUR VIRTUAL WORKSHOP SERIES

In celebration of National Recovery Month, Maryland Coalition of Families is offering a series of free workshops to educate families and loved ones about substance use disorders and the ways that MCF can help, as well as how to respond in an overdose and potentially save a life. We invite you to attend as many workshops as you wish. Please share this information with anyone who could benefit from these free workshops.

Overdose Response Training/Using Narcan
Date: Thursday, September 10, 2020
Time: 7:00 – 8:00 PM

Recognizing and Responding to Substance Use Disorders
Date: Tuesday, September 15, 2020
Time: 7:00 – 8:00 PM

About MCF: Who We Are and How We Help
Date: Wednesday, September 23, 2020
Time: 7:00 – 8:00 PM

Overdose Response Training/Using Narcan
Date: Thursday, September 24, 2020
Time: Noon – 1:00 PM

Grandfamilies: Raising Grandchildren While Your Child Works Toward Recovery
Date: Tuesday, September 29, 2020
Time: 7:00 – 8:00 PM

Overdose Response Training/Using Narcan
Date: Wednesday, September 30, 2020
Time: Noon – 1:00 PM

To register, visit: www.MCF-RM-WorkshopSeries.eventbrite.com

For more information, please contact
Julie Slivka
443-878-5679
JSlivka@mdcoalition.org