List of SDIs and accommodations for IEPs

schedule/environmental SDIs and accommodations

- o a quiet area to complete the work or take a test
- o having someone read a test to them
- "preferential seating," means sitting near the front, or away from distraction or in their area of preference (if they prefer a left or right visual field)
- o preferential seating for hearing/audio
- o preferential seating away from distractions, windows, doors, speakers
- o extra time to complete the work or reading given
- early dismissal from class to get to locker and to next class
- o identify and limit distractions
- o opportunity for practice
- "hot pass" or "cool off card" which is a card the student gets and they can leave class, flash the hot pass to the teacher, and go to office, guidance counselor, nurse (designated ahead of time) to cool off, if they feel a negative behavior coming on
- o high contrast materials, limited visual clutter
- o adapted lunch setting to reduce sensory stressors
- adapted recess with adult lead activities to increase peer interactions
- o recess and group activities to be designed with IEP goals in mind
- keep days and activities structured
- o structured seating arrangements
- small group instruction
- o access to resource room or learning support room (or a sensory room, if available)

SDIs and accommodations for transitions

- visual cues in hallways to guide child to next classroom or cafeteria
- personal time outs to regroup and prepare for transition
- time warnings and increased transition time
- advance notice of transitions
- o schedule on blackboard (or whiteboard/smartboard, I know, I'm old using the word blackboard)

Tools and Equipment-SDIs and accommodations

- visual charts
- visual schedules
- o visual cues in locker, lunch box, on desk
- o written schedules on locker, lunch box
- o graphic organizers
- o choice cards
- o emotions cards
- o ear plugs or headphones
- o special seating-seat pads, sit-upon balls, etc.

- o adaptive equipment-pens, pencils, calculators, fidgety toys, large print books, audio, etc.
- use of FM headsets to either have blocking out music, or FM transmission of teacher speaking, use Beatz or something else socially acceptable, blocks out outside noise
- rewards charts
- o yoga, meditation, relaxation techniques
- o use of a scribe or oral testing to open ended or essay formats
- o provide a study guide
- provide audio recordings
- provide video/audio recordings
